

2008 Town of Kensington Youth of the Year – Maryann Ashley

Photo Courtesy of the County Line Courier

Recipient of this year's Kensington's Youth of the Year was Maryann Ashley. A recent graduate of KISH she has been an active member of her school and community throughout her high school years. She has excelled academically while being active in extra-curricular activities, has won student of the month awards all three years, has been on the Honour Roll, and this year served on the Grad Executive as Class Valedictorian as well as being recognized as the Best All Around Student at KISH. Maryann has been active and involved in Peer Tutoring, school band, Green & White Revue, SADD, Student Police, Switch participant, Envirothon and Solar Car participant and also co-captain of her soccer team. Maryann was a member of Kensington's Junior Community Council and served as Committee co-chair for the 2008 Relay for Life. Additionally, Maryann participates in her Church Choir, teaching Religion classes and has served as lector at Mass. Over the last several years she has also volunteered at the New London Community Centre Brunch and has been a volunteer in the Emergency Department and Maternity ward and assisted in Volunteer Training at Prince County Hospital.